HON. C. S. GAINER WILL REPRESENT GOV. W. P. HOBBY

Will Serve On Committee to Frame Legislation Needed For the Control of the Pink Boll Worm in Texas as the Governor's Personal Representative.

Governor W. P. Hobby has requested Hon. Chas. S. Gainer of this city to represent him on the committee appointed to work out recommendations for legislation for the control of the pink boll worm. Mr. Gainer is one of the prominent planters of this section, is a man of broad experience in cotton growing and will be able to render the state invaluable service as a member of this highly important committee. The committee is composed of such representative men as Judge W. F. Ramsey, of Dallas; Judge M. H. Gossett, of Houston; J. T. Orr, president state council of agriculture, Dallas; D. E. Liddy, president farmers union, Fort Worth; Hon. T. S. Henderson, Cameron; J. B. Alford, president East Texas Chamber of Commerce, Henderson. The above information was given out by T. O. Walton, director of the extension service of the A. & M. College.

The Eagle learns Mr. Gainer will accept the trust and attend the sessions of the committee. It is indeed an important mission, as well as a high honor to be the Governor's personal representative, but Mr. Gainer's wide experience, coupled with his well known aggressive methods, make his selections a wise one.

THE 'TWIN SISTERS' WERE BURIED NEAR HARRISBURG TEXAS

Austin, Tex., May 7.—A new clew to the whereabouts of the "Twin Sisters," two cannon presented to the Texas revolutionists by the city of Cincinnati and used by General Sam Houston in the battle of San Jacinto has come to light.

These guns were lost at the close of the Civil War, and John E. Cosgrove, a veteran "who rode the lead horse of the team which pulled one of them through the Civil War," is fostering a movement to ask the next legislature to appropriate a sufficient sum to run down this new clew. It has been established that the famous guns were at Galveston and at the downfall of the Confederacy they were surrendered, with many other pieces of ordnance, to the Union forces. Then they disappeared.

H. M. Graves of Dallas said recently that following the surrender he spirited the "Twin Sisters" away and buried them near Harrisburg, but has never been able to relocate the spot where he placed them. He has concluded that he can determine an area of three hundred yards surrounding the place where he buried the guns, and the proposal is that the legislature appropriate a sufficient fund to explore this area.

The search for these relics has been long and extensive. The University of Texas and numerous state officials have prosecuted it, and through influence of Texas congressmen aid of the war department was enlisted. In 1909 and 1910, according to a communication from the chief ordinance of the war department, a thorough search of all United States arsenals where captured cannon were sent at the close of the Civil War was made, but no trace of the "Twin Sisters" was found.

Mr. Cosgrove, who is known by a muster roll in the war department dated April 30, 1863, to have been a private in Van Buren's company, Texas Light Artillery, Confederate army, said that the cannon were merely two iron tubes, but reserved for them a niche in Texas history that can be filled only by them.

BOLD DAYLIGHT BURGLARY

The carnival of burglaries in Bryan continues without letup, hindrance or interruption. The latest was a double and pulled off in the broad open daylight yesterday afternoon between 3 and five o'clock. The home of John Woodyard was entered and $8 in cash stolen. The home of Tony Woodyard nearby was also entered and $200 in cash stolen. Nothing else of value was reported missing from either home. So far there is no clue to the identity of the burglar.

TEXAS INCREASES IN OIL PRODUCTION

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 7.—According to a report of the United States Geological Survey, made public yesterday, the Texas oil fields produced during March 7,231,000 barrels, an increase of 491,000 barrels, compared with February.

Of the total 5,364,000 barrels of production is accredited to Central and Northern Texas, an increase of about 200,000 barrels, and 1,867,000 barrels is shown in production for the coastal fields an increase of 200,000 barrels.

The Oklahoma production, 8,641,000 barrels, affording an increase that made up 20 per cent of the total increase of the country for the month. Oklahoma takes first place in production, with Texas third and Louisiana fourth, California is second in production.

The stocks of the country, amounting to 125,291,000 barrels is a decrease of more than one million barrels compared with February, revealing that the consumption is running ahead of the domestic production. The situation was bolstered by the importation of 6,500,000 barrels from Mexico. Exports to Canada amounted to 849,000 barrels. The Mid-Continent stock for March are given as 77,882,000 barrels, an increase of 162,000 barrels. The Gulf Coast stock was depleted 445,000 barrels. At the same time profiteers are raising the prices of oil.

SAYS LABOR NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR SOARING PRICES

Railroad Brotherhood Refute Charges That Increased Labor Costs Are Responsible For High Living Cost But Lays It To Profiteers and Increase in Millionaire Class.

Washington, May 7.—A study of profiteering in American industry made under the auspices of the railroad labor board today in support of the railway workers demands for higher pay, and to refute charges that increased labor costs are responsible for high cost of living. The study seeks to show profiteering in industry is the fundamental cause for high prices in practically all commodities. The study calls attention to many ways made millionaires and contends that a three fold relationship exists between "high prices, profiteering and an addition to millionaires," and that the increase in the wealth of wealthy is an "unanswerable" refutation to all attempts to charge labor with profiteering, and to all attempts to hold labor responsible for the high cost of living.

BRYAN BANKS ARE BACKING FARM BOYS

Hon. Walter Petet, of the Texas Chamber of Commerce at Dallas, is here to visit his family. Mr. Petet is very much gratified at the success of the proposed Boys' Special trip north and east in August under direction of the A. and M. College. Mr. Petet is having the advertisements of the First State Bank, the First National Bank and the City National Bank of Bryan in offering $900 for three boys in Brazos County to make the trip, lithographed and printed in the advertising to go all over Texas. These advertisements are taken from the Daily Eagle and will be a great help to the movement which is being supported by H. H. Williamson of the A. and M. College. The prizes for Brazos County were authorized by Messrs. Ed Hall, H. O. Boatwright and E. H. Astin, of our three banks, and their action is receiving favorable comment all over Texas.

TOO MANY BUREAUS

The Eagle is reasonably sure there are too many bureaus and propaganda investigations from Washington down the line to the last town. Too many organizations are paralleling the work of others in the rehabilitation. Every organization and bureau in the country believes it has the correct theory. Too many of them are floundering and working on a false hypothesis. Their promoters are probably honest but they are mistaken and misguided. Upon this basis the way to correct and settle conditions is brought with danger and chaos. No two organizations agree upon the remedy—but all admit the need of the hour. The Eagle pleads with our alleged leaders to pool issues. We are fast becoming false leaders and do not understand the situation or the remedy. Three men have recently expressed to the Eagle the same conclusions upon the issues but each had remedies that would not harmonize. This is one of the gravest problems now confronting the American people.

NEW CITIZENS FOR BRYAN

Secretary Eberstadt of Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce located Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Mangum and child with P. L. Dawson on Ursuline Avenue. Mr. Mangum is the representative of The National Cash Register Co., and will make Bryan his headquarters with eight counties in his territory. Secretary Eberstadt also located the representative of the Delco Lighting System—who with his wife and two children will make Bryan headquarters and with seven counties in his territory.

It is stated that Mrs. Jonathan Russell, of Mount Pleasant, who was injured in the political row last Saturday while attending the democratic primary will recover. Mrs. Russell was an innocent bystander. It is said that Mount Pleasant is the real home of the "White Lightning" King. This is a drink that is becoming famous in certain portions of East Texas.

SHERIFF MOREHEAD GETS STOLEN CAR

Upon advice from Constable Walston of Calvert, to look out for a stolen automobile, Sheriff L. E. Morehead made some investigations and located a new Hudson Super-Six in a ditch near Wellborn Wednesday. This was not the car wanted at Calvert, but Sheriff Morehead suspected something was wrong and telephoned to Houston and located the car. He arrested Wm. Murray, colored, on the charge and notified the Houston parties. Sheriff Morehead did some fine work in the investigations.

PLAIN CLOTHES MAN SPENDS A DAY IN BRYAN

Says Absolutely No Truth in Wild Reports Relative To Profiteering Investigations—No Investigation Has Been Made—Violation To Sell Sugar For More Than Two Cents Profit.

E. R. Newell of Houston, of the Department of Justice, was in Bryan Friday and paid the Eagle office a pleasant call. He was in Navasota on official business and was present when the young man was arrested who was here a few days ago, wearing a badge and pretending to be a department of Justice agent. Mr. Newell had with him the badge worn by the young man and which he flashed on a number of Bryan merchants. Mr. Newell said he came on to Bryan because of the stories he had heard in regard to profiteering here, and particularly as to the story that was told with reference to the store of Eugene Edge. Mr. Newell says emphatically there was not one word of truth in the story and that in his travels over the country he had heard the identical story at a number of places, the only difference being a change of name, and in some instances a difference in the punishment inflicted. In some places they report that the merchant was sent to the penitentiary for two years, while here the report stated Mr. Edge was fined $1000. Mr. Newell says there has absolutely been no investigation in Bryan; that there are but two civil service men in this district, himself and one other man and neither of them had been here before Friday. He asked that these facts be published not only in justice to Mr. Edge, but for the benefit of the city, as all such reports travel fast, are added to as they go, and in the wind-up result in great injury to the business interests of the city. In discussing prices and profiteering, Mr. Newell said the sugar situation was about the most serious one now being considered, and that the department was now conducting a rigid investigation. He stated that sugar was still under government regulation under the Food control act and that it was a positive violation of law for any merchant to sell sugar for more than two cents a pound above the wholesale price. He said there were merchants who now had sugar on hand they bought for ten, fourteen and sixteen cents and were selling it at the limit, and some as high as thirty cents and that it was profiteering, and every one doing so was subject to prosecution. His department is going into the sugar problem at once in the hope of bringing some relief. The investigation will not be confined to the retailer, but will go all the way back to the man who converted the cane into raw sugar. Then the prices charged the refineries for the raw sugar, the prices from the refineries to the jobbers and wholesalers, the whole sales price to the retailer, and the retailer's price to the consumer, will all be under control. Not only sugar, but every food product and every article of clothing should receive just such an investigation.

CARRANZA HAS FLED FROM THE MEXICAN CAPITAL IS REPORT

Message From Mexico City to Washington States That Mexican Government Has Fallen and President Carranza Has Fled to Vera Cruz—Rebels Marching From Juarez to Mexico City Is Report.

SEN JOHNSON NOT BE VICE PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 7.—Senator Johnson supplemented the statement of his campaign manager that under no circumstances would he accept the nomination to the vice presidency by making a formal and direct statement to that effect himself. It is amusing to me that the men suggesting me now for vice president, are those who are most horrified at the thought of my nomination for president.

CHICAGO PACKERS INDICTED FOR PROFITEERING

Austin, April 23.—Governor Hobby in a statement advised the farmers who are likely to be included in areas prohibited from growing cotton because of the pink boll worm not to plant cotton but other crops this year. He said he was unable to issue a proclamation establishing noncotton areas because the pink boll worm commission made prohibition of growing cotton contingent upon provisions for reimbursing sufferers. Governor Hobby said the matter was up to the legislature of Texas which would be called to meet in Austin in special session in May.

Austin, Tex., April 23.—Merchants of this city are raising a fund of $10,000 with which to pay the railroad fare of all delegates to the Interscholastic League meet to be held here May 6 and 8. It is anticipated that 2,000 high school and academy students from all parts of the state will be here to participate in track, debate, declamation, spelling, essay and tennis contests. Heretofore, only 25 per cent of the railroad fare of the delegates has been paid. lapse down there that country had us of Mexico just before the col 112 holidays. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

NO RECOGNITION REBEL MOVEMENT BY UNITED STATES

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 7.—Official interest in the development of the political phases of the Mexican revolution is stimulated by the government reports indicating rapid weakening of President Carranza's grip, although any recognition by the United States of the rebel movement other than that accorded any defacto force is said to be improbable. It is known that agents of the state department have studied carefully the promulgated program of rebels and published with assurances of Alvaro Obregon and other leaders of revolt that a more friendly attitude toward foreigners be adopted.

The Mexican consul at Laredo said the rebels were not of sufficient force to make a successful attack against the Nuevo Laredo garrison. Unconfirmed report was that Carlos Ozuna with a force of former federal cavalry was also approaching Nuevo Laredo to demand its surrender to the Obregonistas.

Yearby, who comes from his old home town in North Carolina and is one of the representatives of Wake Forest College of North Carolina, in the debate that takes place tonight between Baylor and Wake Forest. One of the Baylor representatives is S. R. McClung, grandson of Rev. S. R. McClung who formerly lived in Bryan, and a nephew of Mrs. J. G. Minkert of this city.

Mr. C. L. Beason and pretty little 4 year old Margaret called at the Eagle office this morning and Margaret promptly offered to divide her candy. ## A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught. Relief From Head-ache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga., Mrs. Chas. Ganton. Of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theodor's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regularly until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Inset on Theodor's the original and genuine. B 79

SPIDERS NOW ON THE INSTEP OF MILADY

(From Saturday's Daily)
Houston, Texas, May 1.—Don't be alarmed if you spy a vicious looking spider just above Dame Fashion's trim ankle as she skips down Main street—such is the advice given out by those who keep pace with Milady's styles. The spider will not crawl, for it is only hand painted. Butterflies in varied hues, Texas spiders, wild flowers in rainbow shades, portraits and even rural scenes hand painted on hosiery is the very latest deuce made by that fickle dame.

"Watch her instep," has been predicted as the byword to be used by promenaders, but little will milady care, for works of art are to be admired by all. Hand painted hosiery, lingerie, pillow tops, parasols and all sorts of clothing are the last word in women's styles nowadays. The great trouble with this form of decoration in the past has been that the colors would usually run or fade.

But Jack Browne eliminated this trouble after seven years of labor. He invented an oil paint that could be applied to linen or silk and that would not fade or run after being washed, boiled or dry cleaned, it is claimed.

Mr. Browne recently returned from France, where a large studio has been established where hand painted clothing is turned out as a work of art. The cost of this work of course is rather high. Mr. Browne, however, is painting flowers and butterflies and other simple designs on women's clothing in Houston at a nominal cost. The price increases with the difficulty of the picture. He is at work in the window of Levy Brothers' store and will be there for three days. The hosiery is slipped on a form and the painting done in a very short time.

The designs are painted in colors that harmonize with any particular color of clothing that may be worn by the purchaser, but any design desired and in any colors may be had. One of Mr. Browne's specialties is painting clothing for babies and small children. All of these things cost extra money and are necessary to keep a large number of people at work doing something immaterial to get the money.

Washington, May 6.—Admiral Wm. Benson, war time chief of naval operations, told the senate naval committee that both before and after the war he had warned Rear Admiral Sims not to let his friendship with the British unduly influence his official acts. Admiral Benson said he could not deny he told Admiral Sims in 1917 "Not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes, we would as soon fight them as Germany," as he could not recall all the details of the interview. A witness said a wrong interpretation was placed on the statement by Admiral Sims and that it resulted in grave injustice to him. He denied he was in any way unfriendly toward the British.

SEC'TY MEREDITH IS TO ENTERTAIN OUR TEXAS BOYS

One hundred and fifty Texas farm boys will be the guests of United States Secretary of Agriculture Edwin T. Meredith at his home in Des Moines, Iowa, early in August when the Texas Farm Boy Special of five Pullman cars arrives in the Iowa capital.

Much interest in the tour of the Texas farm club boys during the first three weeks of August under the direction of the Texas Chamber of Commerce and the A. & M. College has been aroused in Washington, says I. W. Hill, farm club field agent of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, who is now visiting Texas and talking before Texas farmers. Arrangements are being made to show the visiting Texas farm boys through the national capital, the White House, Mount Vernon, The Smithsonian Institute, the Congressional Library, the Navy Yard and other points of interest when the special arrives in that city.

A glimpse of Canadian farming will be given the boys by a tour of about 100 miles in the dominion. This feature of the trip, as well as a visit to the Niagara Falls, has recently been arranged, announces Walton Peteet, manager of the department of Agriculture of the Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The three banks of Bryan the First National, the City National and the First State Bank have donated $300 each making $900 for three worthy farm boys in Brazos County to qualify and make this trip. Walton Peteet, of the Texas Chamber of Commerce, was here Monday and stated this would be the greatest educational trip ever given the young men in Texas.

COL. ROSCOE CONKLIN SIMMONS ELOQUENT MAN

Spoke To An Audience of a Thousand and More People In This City Bringing An Eloquent Message of Love, Tenderness, Sympathy and Service.

Glad to see some of our white friends out. That's just where you belong—right with us.

No real music ever given to America except the perfect harmony of negro music.

Sing the songs of Zion. The perpetuity of the race depends upon your loyalty to God.

I am an American negro and proud of it. I am at home, other races came here.

I am proud of the American white man and glad to live here by him.

I never talk about the American white man nor permit others to do it. I have but one song for all and that is let us live sweetly together and die together.

My only word for the colored man is "patience." My only word for the white man is "justice."

The white man is the negro's best friend and the negro is the white man's best friend—his only real friend.

My Master created me as I am. He placed my hand in the white man's hand, and what God has joined together, let not man put asunder.

Slavery is the only teacher the world has ever known. Liberty has never taught the world a single lesson.

Put your foot upon the soil and your eyes upon the stars. Buy land.

The white man's love of home makes him America's uncrowned King. You men of Ethiopia, learn of him.

The visit of Col. Roscoe Conklin Simmons to Bryan yesterday afternoon was a notable event in the history of the colored people of the county and if his words of wisdom, uttered in his address to a great audience in the pavilion of the west side park last night, are given heed and treasured as they should be, will result in lasting and forward looking good for the race.

The speaking was largely attended, many colored people coming by train and automobile from other places, and the occasion being enlivened by the band from Prairie View Normal and Industrial College. A parade was given in the afternoon which was highly creditable, there being some thirty or forty cars and trucks in the parade, headed by the Prairie View band.

At the speaking there were a number of Bryan and Brazos county's leading colored people seated on the rostrum with the speaker, and the song service preceding the introductions, led by Mrs. A. E. Thompson, was simply glorious and inspirational in the highest degree. It inspired the speaker, and in his address he paid a tribute to music that was the very essence of eloquence. He said that when the Lord had finished his work of creation and rested on the seventh day he longed for music. There were no singers then. No bands, no orchestras, no violins, no harps. And the great Jehovah stepped back on the golden cushions of his throne and drawing down his sword of omnipotence, commanded the morning stars to sing. When that grand chorus burst forth that caused the very universe to rock upon its foundations, the curtain was drawn aside and Ethiopia stepped forward and snatched from the pipe organ of heaven the grand refrain, and in that way the perfect harmony of the stars has been brought down through the ages in the music of the negro race.

Dr. A. E. Thompson, president of the colored Commercial Club, opened the meeting and told how the club had made possible the visit of Colonel Simmons, and also told of what the club hoped to accomplish by co-operation with the white progressive Chamber of Commerce of the city. He introduced L. A. Nash, who introduced Rev. Jackson, who introduced the distinguished speaker, Col. Roscoe Conklin Simmons, head of the National Lincoln League of America and nephew of the late Booker T. Washington.

It is but simple justice to say that Mr. Simmons is a wonderful man. Slight of stature even to feebleness, yet with a mind rarely endowed and showing a profound thoughtfulness, his entire address was a burst of eloquence rarely if ever equaled by any one in Bryan. He is truly following in the footsteps of his illustrious uncle and the burden of his song is one of love, of gentleness, of forbearance, of patience, of brotherly kindness. His message is an exhortation inspiring men to higher and nobler service, just as was the message of Booker T. Washington. He is doing a great work for his race, and if they will only garner the truths of his mighty lessons and treasure it to their own profit, the future of the race is solved.

MOORING WELL NO. 1 IS DOWN 86 FEET

Mr. Roger Q. Astin was in from the Brazos Bottom Monday and while at the Eagle office stated that Mooring Well no. 1, sixteen miles northwest of Bryan was now down 86 feet with 20-inch casing resting on solid foundation. The quicksands have been passed and a 16-inch drill is now going into the rock which is the beginning of real drilling operations. Mr. Astin states that Director Ewing is pleased with the progress of the work. Several leases on land in the vicinity of Mooring No. 1 have changed hands at higher prices, some deals being made on Monday. President Spurgeon of Chicago, who is president of the Warren Oil Company, is expected in Bryan soon to inspect the drilling which is now going on day and night without interruption.

NEW ROASTING EAR $10 PER BUSHEL

Waco, Texas, May 1.—A fancy price on a humble spring garden favorite has come to light with the advent of the first roasting ears of the season. Fresh corn on the cob, fifty dozen ears, sold yesterday in double quick time from the Third Street Market for $1 per dozen ears. These were the first roasting ears to reach Waco, so far as is known. "We got them from the Rio Grande valley, and expect to have more on Saturday," said J. F. Stamp of the market. The price of this luscious spring vegetable is expected to drop within the reach of Mr. Average Man as soon as the supply becomes more plentiful.

THE HIGHEST PRICE BOAR IN TEXAS

Arlington, Texas, May 1, 1920.—The highest price ever brought by a boar south of the Ohio River was obtained by George P. Lillard of Arlington this week when he sold his grand champion Duroc Jersey for $13,500 to B. F. Quicksall, manager of the Sylvan Duroc Farm of Woodville, Tyler County. He was offered $15,000 for immediate delivery of the animal, but would not agree to let him go until June 1. The sale was made through Tom Frazier, livestock commission man of Fort Worth.

This boar, "Reece's Pathfinder," was adjudged the grand champion of all breeds at last year's Dallas Fair. It was bred by Lillard and sold in the am for $100 to a Waco party, later buying him back for $5,000. Quicksall made a trip through the North before buying, and said that he saw only one animal he liked as well as "Reece's Pathfinder." His owners refused $50,000 for him and would not name a price.

AMERICANS ARE THE GREATEST PROFITEERS

Chicago, May 1.—Dough boys just back from duty on the Rhine, saluted forth Wednesday to get a snack to eat. They ordered half a grape fruit, a club sandwich and a cup of coffee each, expecting the bill to be about 50 cents. They were amazed to find they had to pay 25 cents for a grape fruit, 60 cents for a club sandwich and 15 cents for a very small cup of coffee.

"Back to Europe for us," they shouted. "There are robbers over there, but they are bush leaguers compared to the average American restaurant man."

The soldiers made such an ado about the affair that it came to the ears of the department of justice and federal sleuths were sent out to collect menus, with a view to many prosecutions for profiteering. It was found that club sandwiches, with only two layers, were being sold as high as 70 cents and an ordinary cheese sandwich, worth at best not more than 5 cents, was being retailed at 25 cents. Grape fruit sells at $5.50 for a crate of 68. Served in halves at 25 cents a portion, or 50 cents for each grape fruit, it will be seen that the restaurant man is not losing money there. Some of the hotel's charge 30 to 40 cents for a half portion. The menus collected today will be compared with South Water street prices and the government promises some startling prosecutions and exposures very soon.

USE EAGLE WANT ADS.

CARRANZA HAS LOST FULLY HALF OF HIS TERRITORY

Revolutionists Are Meeting Little or No Resistance As They March Through Mexico. Carranza Has Lost Half His Territory and Looks Like All Going.

Washington, May 4.—Relief was shown in government circles and by revolutionary agents, when it became known that the rebels took Juarez without a fight. Until now the rebels have succeeded in taking from Carranza almost half his territory without a battle, but military men here assume a few stubborn contests are inevitable unless averted by further defection of federals.

No Bloodshed at Juarez
Juarez, May 4.—A bloodless revolt at Juarez yesterday and the capitulation of General Francisco Uribelago and his Yaqui Indians at Casas Grandes, virtually gave Sonora to the revolutionists, and the control of the state of Chihuahua, and paved the way for an unobstructed advance against Torreón from whence the campaign will be launched against Mexico City.

Mexican Labor May Strike
Agua Prieta, May 4.—A general strike of Mexican labor is a potential weapon possessed by the revolutionists for use against Carranza, General Elias Calles, military commander of the northwest provinces. Labor organizations are active everywhere in Mexico for a liberal Constitutional government.

BRAZOS COUNTY ENDORSES PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON

Howell, secretary and Oak McKenzie assistant secretary. Lee J. Rountree was chairman and S. Barron, secretary of the resolution committee at the court house. Hobby was endorsed for delegate-at-large to San Francisco by both Bryan conventions. Full proceedings will appear in the Eagle Monday.

DEEPEST OIL WELL IS IN YOUNG CO.

(By Associated Press)
Austin, Tex., May 5.—The deepest producing oil well in Texas, is claimed to be the Arnold No. 1, recently brought in by the Texas Company in Young County at 4700 feet.

The report on this well, filed with the railroad commission said: "We invite your attention to the log of Arnold No. 1, as we believe this is the deepest producing well in Texas, if not in the United States, same being a producer at 4700 feet."

FARMERS MUST FEED THE WORLD.

A farmer friend of the Eagle living in Brazos County and trying to produce something to "keep the world going" and save the cities and European countries from starvation, called at the office Tuesday and protested against sending money and food stuffs to Germany, France, Austria, Russia and other countries where the people are fighting and striking. He said that about $500,000,000 had gone to these countries recently and the May Day strike would put all Europe on starvation. He said these degenerate people were making it impossible for the farmer to employ labor and produce food stuffs. Some months ago, the Eagle pointed out these things and it is a fact that the farmers of Texas cannot produce the crops unless they can get the labor at the proper time. Political demagogues can speak and preach all they desire but these facts must be faced.

MANY SOLDIERS TAKING VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

(Special to the Eagle)
Washington, D. C., May 4.—The soldier from Texas who was disabled while fighting for his country will never become a charge upon his community if the Federal Board for Vocational Education can prevent it. The attached list of Bryan men, and the institutions in which they have been placed by the Board, should banish all doubt on the subject.

Nearly 1025 disabled men have been placed in institutions from this state. Mr. W. F. Doughty, District Vocational Officer, 118 South Poydras Street, Dallas, Texas, is making a record for this district, which includes the states of Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas, of which he is justly proud. The following are the men: John M. Cuttite, Bryan, Rec. Sta.; Arlington; Manuel M. Noon, Rec. Sta.; Stephen H. Spruger, Bryan, Texas A. & M. College.

DOLLAR A POUND FOR COTTON SEEMS REALITY

(Special to The Eagle)

Ennis, Tex., May 5.—Because of the unprecedented demand of Automobile Tire Companies for staple cotton, A. H. Wicker & Co., of Ennis are urging cotton growers of Texas to plant staple cotton and secure a premium on their crop. "The revival in high prices for staples is caused by the demand for automobile tires, which must have the strongest and longest staple to weave the fabric for the tire" says their weekly news letter.

"A dollar a pound cotton is at least a reality, and not only a dollar but in some cases staple cotton has approached nearer the two dollar mark than the one dollar price. This is applied to long staples, the inch and one-quarter recently selling in Fall River at $1.04. In years past much of this cotton was raised in North Texas counties, but the falling off in premiums has caused less to be planted in recent years.

"New England this year imported large quantities of Egyptian cotton which caused a near famine in that variety, resulting in a very rapid advance in prices. The world now faces an actual famine in that staple. It is said that this year the Goodyear Tire Company has given a guarantee of 60c on 10,000 acres of staple cotton to encourage the growing of the staple. "Although Texas farmers have gone in more during the past few years for better staple, they have overlooked the important feature of marketing the staple according to staple prices. Texas farmers should plant this better staple cotton even if not the 1-4 to 5-8 inch variety, for premiums will reward them liberally for their trouble.

"In order to get the reward for their cotton in the nature of an increased price and premium they must certainly look to the proper marketing. Under present system of marketing they will not realize what their cotton is worth. Blind marketing that will place the product before the spinner that wants that kind and that kind only. The market must be brought to the grower and the grower must not be forced to sell his cotton where it becomes a medium of speculation.

CAPT. T. P. BOYETT COMES TO END OF USEFUL LIFE

Died Saturday Morning at 10:55 and Buried Sunday Afternoon at Four—Funeral One of Largest Ever Seen in City—Beautiful Floral Tributes.

As has already been briefly mentioned in these columns, Capt. Thomas Pinkney Boyett passed away at his home on South College Avenue, Saturday morning, May 1st at 10:55 o'clock after an illness of several weeks. His illness began with hiccoughs which continued for days and weeks despite the efforts of physicians and specialists, and before any relief came, his strength was exhausted to such an extent that the vital spark could not again be fanned into a living flame. It grew fainter and fainter day by day and at the hour above stated, the brave old soldier closed his eyes to earth and earthly things, and went to join his old comrades who had passed on the other shore.

He was a native Texan, the son of James and Frances Boyett, and was born in Woodville, Tyler County, Texas, August 10th, 1845, making him 74 years, 8 months and 21 days of age at the time of his death. His parents were of that sturdy, rugged stock of the Old South, his father being a Virginian and his mother a native of Mississippi. He came to Brazos County with his father's family when ten years of age, the family settling near where the A. & M. College is now located and here he grew to manhood.

When the war between the North and South came on, though only seventeen years of age and small of stature, he responded to the call of his beloved Southland and enlisted in Company C, Fifteenth Texas Infantry under Capt. Sedberry, and served valiantly throughout the four years of the bitter struggle. At the battle of Yellow Bayou, Louisiana, his command fell into ambush and he was captured and taken to New Orleans where he remained in a federal stockade for nine months before he was paroled. He participated in a number of important engagements and his valor was attested by his Captain who told his parents from his own lips after it was all over, that "a braver boy never drew sword in defense of home and country than he."

Following the surrender of Lee at Appomattox he returned to his home in this county and again took up his duties of civil life, following farming and stock raising. He was for several years a typical cowboy and ranch foreman in New Mexico, Arizona, and Wyoming. He worked part of the time for Gen. H. B. Stoddard, who was at that time a prominent cattle man and president of the Texas Cattle Raisers Association, and part of the time for others. He made several trips with great herds of cattle over the old Denver and Santa Fe trails going as far as Kansas City. He had many thrilling experiences in those wild days, in a still wilder country, and to hear him relate them was like perusing the pages of the most thrilling fiction.

Capt. Boyett was not only a brave, true soldier, but was brave and true to every duty and obligation of life and citizenship. He was the soul of honor and carried within his rugged breast a "heart of oak" yet withal as gentle and tender as a little child's. He was kindly, outstretched and open to all who needed his assistance. It was his chief delight to minister to the widows and the fatherless in their affliction, and he often remarked to ladies and others engaged in charitable work, not to fail to call on him whenever he could be of assistance in relieving distress, or rendering any other service he could. Loyalty to his friends was another characteristic of his life, and the roads were never too long nor the nights too dark and cold for him not to answer when they called. That he had so lived was a great consolation to him in his last hours, and while on his deathbed he remarked to a friend that whatever else might be said of him, he had always been true to his friends.

Capt. Boyett was a progressive man and citizen and took an active interest in all public affairs. He was for every movement that had for its object the good of the town and county.

He served as city marshal of Bryan for nearly twenty years and there was no braver or more faithful guardian of the peace than he.

On March 25th 1870 Capt. Boyett was united in marriage to Miss Mary Wicker of this city and is survived by his good wife and seven children, four daughters and three sons, namely: Mrs. C. S. LeMatte, Mrs. B. H. Knox, Mrs. Chas. Ramsey of this city; Mrs. F. A. Peters of Humble, and Messrs. Ralph, Ivan and T. P. Boyett, Jr., of this city. He is also survived by two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Tom Gray of San Antonio, Mrs. J. L. Hearn of this city and W. C. Boyett of College Station. The profound sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved ones in their great sorrow.

The funeral was held from his late home on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Dr. John A. Held, pastor of the First Baptist church conducting the services. The remains were followed to the cemetery by one of the largest processions ever seen in Bryan, and he was laid gently and tenderly to rest. After his grave had been piled high with flowers—beautiful testimonials of love from many friends, and the benediction spoken, await the coming of the resurrection morn—God rest him in peace.

The following gentlemen served as pall bearers: Active—Lamar Bethae, Jno. A. Moore, Jr., John M. Lawrence, Seth Mooring, H. A. Burger, W. C. Davis, Jas. H. Webb, Dr. W. H. Oliver. Honorary—Gen. H. B. Stoddard, Capt. W. E. Saunders, R. M. Hall, T. C. Nunn, J. T. Hines, Maj. L. L. McInnis, H. O. Boatwright, A. J. Bushman, J. W. Batts, R. Q. Astin, M. B. Parker and M. H. James.

Out of town visitors to attend the funeral were: Mrs. Ed Prather Mexia; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kirk, W. H. Kinney and son, Waco; Mrs. Gray San Antonio; L. E. Ponder, Waco and H. Seal, Houston.

RAINBOW POT OF GOLD TURNS SUDDENLY TO DROSS

(From Saturday's Daily)

Chicago, May 1.—The pot of gold at the end of the Cowan rainbow turned to dross today for five of the nine cousins, who were about to divide what is left of the $3,000,000 estate of the late William P. Cowan.

Witnesses appeared to disprove the claims of heirship set up by the Saxton brothers and sisters of Michigan and to establish as a first cousin Henry Cowan of Canal Winchester, O., whose claim had previously been denied. Substantiation of the new claims will throw back into the estate more than $625,000 for the redistribution. The heirs whose claims are assailed are William Saxton of Eagle, Mich.; Walter Saxton and Mrs. Caroline Saxton Hart of Grand Lodge, Mich.; Charles E. Saxton of Banister, Mich.; and Perdella Saxton-Colby of Cadillac, Mich.

The agitation was increased by fresh claims put forth by David Cowan Lowrey of Neelyville, Mo., a half breed Indian, who says he is a son of Cowan by a common law marriage, and the appearance of William H. Porter and wife of Cleveland, O., old friends of the family, in behalf of David Henry Cowan. Both testified that David Cowan was the son of David M. Cowan, a brother of William P. Cowan's father. David H. Stradley of Canal Winchester, O., also testified in behalf of David Henry Cowan. Stradley is a son-in-law of David Cowan.

U. S. SENATOR CAPPER WOULD ENLARGE ALL THE JAIL ROOM

Washington, April 29.—Profiteers were denounced in the Senate Tuesday by Senator Capper (Rep.) of Kansas, who presented statistics which he said showed the earnings of many American corporations represented profiteering "open, scandalous and shameless."

Senator Capper attacked the Department of Justice's cheaper meat campaign and said increased prices of sugar were "the most brazen challenge we have had in this saturnalia of greed."

Senator Lenroot (Rep.) of Wisconsin, agreeing with the Kansas Senator's declaration that profiteering had become a national menace, said Attorney General Palmer was setting a few mouse traps around the country when he ought to be setting bear traps to catch the big or millionaire profiteers. The administration was held responsible by Senator Lenroot for the increasing sugar prices. Disagreement with the contents of Senators Capper and Lenroot was expressed by Senator Thomas (Dem.) of Colorado, who said the Senators were "complaining about conditions instead of causes, like a child who stumbled over a chair and then turns around and kicks it."

Senator Capper said ample laws existed to check profiteering and that "if those charged with enforcement of the laws will see that profit hogs are sent to jail, prices will soon tumble." He added that if law enforcement officers of the Government could not enforce the statutes, they should resign. Excessive margins are part of profiteering, Senator Capper said, in presenting his list of corporations whose profits were placed at 20 to 200 per cent. The list of such corporations included steel companies, shoe and leather manufacturers and makers of nearly all the staple commodities. "Wall street's melon patches," he declared, "continue to be warmed by the sun of privilege, fertilized by the perspiration of labor and watered by the tears of poverty, and this year will raise a record-breaking crop, free from the blight of income taxes, while the people are being urged to buy their coal early and be robbed for less, to abstain from steak one day a week and to purchase war saving stamps that the United States may live in nine-billion style on a six-billion income."

"At this moment the most brazen challenge we have had in this saturnalia of greed comes from the gamblers in sugar. A corner has evidently been formed right under the eyes of the Department of Justice. The canning season is on. For years the sugar interests have annually and openly and shamelessly robbed American housewives during the canning season."

After reviewing the activities of flour, sugar and cotton mills, the recent Supreme Court decision holding stock dividends untaxable and the Department of Justice's campaign urging use of the "cheaper cuts" of meats—which he condemned—Senator Capper presented a list of corporations whose earnings, he said, were proof of profiteering "open, flagrant, scandalous."

A FREE FOR ALL FIGHT AT THE MOUNT PLEASANT PRIMARY

Mrs. Jonathan Russell, An Innocent Bystander Was Probably Fatal, Injured—The Fight Was Between The Bailey and Anti-Bailey Faction and Was Very Bitter.

Mount Pleasant, Tex., May 3.—Mrs. Jonathan Russell of this place was probably fatally injured Saturday afternoon in a free-for-all fight at the precinct convention held in this city. Nearly a dozen men were also injured in the battle.

The trouble started immediately at the close of the convention when Bailey and anti-Bailey men became involved in a controversy over a present political campaign. A large number of women attended the convention and the anti-Bailey side was victorious. Jibes came from opposite sides of the house.

Remarks made by each side of the house resulted in the fight, in which cursors, pocketknives and walking canes played a prominent part. Mrs. Russell was struck by a cuspidor which was thrown at a man by his political opponent. None of the missiles thrown was directed at the women. No arrests have been made, but officers have been investigating the affair this afternoon.

BRAZOS COUNTY NEEDS A STRONG COUNTY AGENT

County Agent R. B. Ewing, of Robertson County, carries a column of news each week in the Calvert Tribune which contains facts regarding things the business man and the farmer, the town man and the country man should know. In this day there should be no conflict between the town and the country. We are all from the country. If the farmer and the stockman do not save the day it will not be saved. The average "city" man has the "unrestful" and is hastening the crisis. Brazos County needs a strong, useful and efficient county agent. There must be more production to meet the great issues confronting the American people.

WELLBORN AUXILIARY IN SOCIAL SESSION

The first social meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of the Wellborn Baptist church was held on Tuesday afternoon at the church building and was a most enjoyable affair.

The auxiliary was organized only a few months ago, and has grown into an enthusiastic help to the church and has done a great work, thus early in its existence. The ladies have converted the interior of the church into a most attractive place by staining and varnishing the floor and benches, putting down carpet runners in the aisles, decorating in stained glass effect the windows, and adding other attractive features.

The meeting on Tuesday was for the purpose of stimulating the social life of the church and how well it succeeded is plainly told in the splendid report brought to Bryan by the forty-five Bryan women who attended by special invitation.

The following program was given: Bible reading from the 11th chapter of John by the president, Mrs. George F. Lee; prayer by Mrs. J. J. Pipkin; "Welcome to Our Visitors," Mrs. Williams; "Importance of an Auxiliary," Mrs. W. E. Graham; poem, "What Is Prayer," Mrs. Hugh Dowling; vocal duet, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," by daughter and mother, Mrs. Myres and Mrs. Hodges.

Mrs. W. S. Howell responded to the word of welcome in behalf of the Bryan visitors. Mrs. P. S. Park made a beautiful spiritual talk on "Holding Steadfast" and Mrs. Clarence Vick told of the appreciation of the invitation to be present and hoped every woman present would return the visit by meeting with the Bryan church at its next meeting.

At the close of the program, delicious sandwiches and grape juice punch was served.

RAILROAD STRIKE IS BREWING AGAIN

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 5.—Railroad workers in all Southern cities are expected to go on a "vacation" today or tomorrow James Eubanks, of St. Louis declared in the conference of non-recognized Railroad Yardmen's Association. He said the action will close gateways to cotton belt and isolate all the oil fields of the Southwest. If carried out this will stop all freight traffic from Texas and the Southwest, including South Texas vegetables and fruits.

M. Bonneville's RACKET STORE

On the Corner West of Main Street

Buy From the House That makes Your Buying Safe

We find ourself with a larger stock of merchandise at this time of year than we would like to have. We are getting in mid-season and crops are not advancing so far at a very rapid rate and too many goods to suit us. Lost of time and profits when they are not moving out as fast as they should, so we have put the KNIFE TO OUR PRICES and cut prices, so as to move these GOODS and our trade and our customers have the benefit of the low REDUCTION PRICES as long as they will last. Remember merchandise are high and going higher, and it will pay you to take advantage of this sale and buy your wants ahead and save money! We are figuring now on Fall Goods. Our buyers in the East have bought very heavy and as soon as railroad traffic gets normal and running on regular time, we know then we will be rushed and full up again with merchandise that will puzzle us to know where to place them unless we unload our present stock, so take advantage of these PRICES and buy your wants for less than you can buy them elsewhere.
